This notice will be supplemented with any new significant facts learned subsequent to its submission. By providing this notice, Personal Legal Plans does not waive any rights or defenses regarding the applicability of Maine law, the applicability of the Maine data event notification statute, or personal jurisdiction.

Nature of the Data Event

On August 31, 2021, Personal Legal Plans became aware that certain files on its computer system were encrypted with malware by an unknown actor. Personal Legal Plans promptly took steps to secure the impacted systems and its network and launched an investigation to determine the nature and scope of the event. On September 27, 2021, the investigation concluded determining that the unauthorized actor may have had access to certain current and former employee and client information files within these systems.

The information that could have been subject to unauthorized access includes name, Social Security number, and financial account information.

Notice to Maine Residents

On or about October 25, 2021, Personal Legal Plans provided written notice of this incident to all affected individuals, which includes four (4) Maine residents. Written notice is being provided in substantially the same form as the letter attached here as Exhibit A.

Other Steps Taken and To Be Taken

Upon discovering the event, Personal Legal Plans moved quickly to investigate and respond to the incident, assess the security of Personal Legal Plans systems, and notify potentially affected individuals. Personal Legal Plans is also working to implement additional safeguards and training to its employees. Personal Legal Plans is providing access to credit monitoring services for one (1) year, through Experian to individuals whose personal information was potentially affected by this incident, at no cost to these individuals.

Additionally, Personal Legal Plans is providing impacted individuals with guidance on how to better protect against identity theft and fraud, including advising individuals to report any suspected incidents of identity theft or fraud to their credit card company and/or bank. Personal Legal Plans is providing individuals with information on how to place a fraud alert and security freeze on one's credit file, information on protecting against tax fraud, the contact details for the national consumer reporting agencies, information on how to obtain a free credit report, a reminder to remain vigilant for incidents of fraud and identity theft by reviewing account statements and monitoring free credit reports, and encouragement to contact the Federal Trade Commission, their state Attorney General, and law enforcement to report attempted or actual identity theft and fraud.

Re: Notice of [Security Incident] [Data Breach]

Dear <<Name 1>> <<Name 2>>:

Personal Legal Plans, Inc. and Personal Legal Plans of GA, Inc. (“Personal Legal Plans”) is writing to inform you of an event that may impact some of your information. While there is no evidence of any attempted or actual misuse of your information, we are providing you with information about this event, our response, and the steps you may take to further protect your information against identity theft and fraud, should you feel it necessary to do so.

What Happened? On August 31, 2021, Personal Legal Plans became aware that certain files on its computer system were encrypted with malware by an unknown actor. Personal Legal Plans promptly took steps to secure the impacted systems and its network and launched an investigation to determine the nature and scope of the event. On September 27, 2021, the investigation concluded determining that the unauthorized actor may have had access to certain current and former employee and client information files within these systems.

What Information Was Involved? Out of an abundance of caution, we are notifying you because our investigation determined that certain information related to you may have been impacted. This information includes your name, Social Security number, and financial account information.

What We Are Doing. The privacy and security of your information is among our highest priorities and we take this incident very seriously. Personal Legal Plans is reviewing its security policies and procedures to reduce the risk of this happening in the future and implemented additional measures and security tools to further protect information in our systems. Personal Legal Plans is also working to provide additional training to employees regarding data privacy and security. While we do not have any indications that fraud or identity theft has occurred as a result of this incident, we are offering [twelve (12)] [twenty-four (24)] months of complementary credit monitoring through Experian as an added precaution. We also reported this incident to federal law enforcement and are notifying state regulators, as required.

What You Can Do. We encourage you to remain vigilant against incidents of identity theft and fraud by reviewing your account statements and monitoring your free credit reports for suspicious activity. Additional information and resources are included in the enclosed Steps You Can Take to Help Protect Your Information. You may also enroll in the complementary credit monitoring available to you at no cost. Enrollment instructions are attached to this letter.

For More Information. If you have additional questions, please call us at <<XXX-XXX-XXXX>> between the hours of X:00 a.m. and X:00 p.m. You may also write to Personal Legal Plans at 5821 Fairview Road, Suite G9, Charlotte, North Carolina 28209.

We sincerely regret any inconvenience or concern this incident may cause.

Sincerely,

<<SIGNATURE>>

Monitor Your Accounts

Under U.S. law, a consumer is entitled to one free credit report annually from each of the three major credit reporting bureaus, Equifax, Experian, and TransUnion. To order your free credit report, visit www.annualcreditreport.com or call, toll-free, 1-877-322-8228. You may also directly contact the three major credit reporting bureaus listed below to request a free copy of your credit report.

Consumers have the right to place an initial or extended “fraud alert” on a credit file at no cost. An initial fraud alert is a 1-year alert that is placed on a consumer’s credit file. Upon seeing a fraud alert display on a consumer’s credit file, a business is required to take steps to verify the consumer’s identity before extending new credit. If you are a victim of identity theft, you are entitled to an extended fraud alert, which is a fraud alert lasting seven years. Should you wish to place a fraud alert, please contact any one of the three major credit reporting bureaus listed below.

As an alternative to a fraud alert, consumers have the right to place a “credit freeze” on a credit report, which will prohibit a credit bureau from releasing information in the credit report without the consumer’s express authorization. The credit freeze is designed to prevent credit, loans, and services from being approved in your name without your consent. However, you should be aware that using a credit freeze to take control over who gets access to the personal and financial information in your credit report may delay, interfere with, or prohibit the timely approval of any subsequent request or application you make regarding a new loan, credit, mortgage, or any other account involving the extension of credit. Pursuant to federal law, you cannot be charged to place or lift a credit freeze on your credit report. To request a security freeze, you will need to provide the following information:

1. Full name (including middle initial as well as Jr., Sr., II, III, etc.);
2. Social Security number;
3. Date of birth;
4. Addresses for the prior two to five years;
5. Proof of current address, such as a current utility bill or telephone bill;
6. A legible photocopy of a government-issued identification card (state driver’s license or ID card, etc.); and
7. A copy of either the police report, investigative report, or complaint to a law enforcement agency concerning identity theft if you are a victim of identity theft.

Should you wish to place a credit freeze, please contact the three major credit reporting bureaus listed below:

Additional Information

You may further educate yourself regarding identity theft, fraud alerts, credit freezes, and the steps you can take to protect your personal information by contacting the consumer reporting bureaus, the Federal Trade Commission, or your state Attorney General. The Federal Trade Commission may be reached at: 600 Pennsylvania Avenue NW, Washington, DC 20580; www.identitytheft.gov; 1-877-ID-THEFT (1-877-438-4338); and TTY: 1-866-653-4261. The Federal Trade Commission also encourages those who discover that their information has been misused to file a complaint with them. You can obtain further information on how to file such a complaint by way of the contact information listed above. You have the right to file a police report if you ever experience identity theft or fraud. Please note that in order to file a report with law enforcement for identity theft, you will likely need to provide some proof that you have been a victim. Instances of known or suspected identity theft should also be reported to law enforcement and your state Attorney General. This notice has not been delayed by law enforcement.

For North Carolina residents, the North Carolina Attorney General may be contacted at: 9001 Mail Service Center, Raleigh, NC 27699-9001; 1-877-566-7226 or 1-919-716-6000; and www.ncdoj.gov.
